Introductions and Announcements

The Toronto Anaphylaxis Education Group (TAEG) is a local support/education group for individuals and parents of children living with life threatening allergies.

We aim to connect members together for support and bring our members the most recent information regarding anaphylaxis through the use of guest speakers, updates, email alerts and information sharing through our meetings and website.

Leaders: Marni and Sarah

Dr Adelle Atkinson

- For the November meeting, TAEG welcomes Paediatric Allergist Dr. Adelle Atkinson, joining us to share an update on the current food allergy research from Sick Kids – specifically on the initiative working on a cure #InOnlyTenYears (details here). Dr Atkinson will also answer questions from the group. This is a great session to hear about this exciting research and ask questions – especially from a doctor who is also an allergy mom!
